Standing Committees receive their charges from the NETAR President, with the approval of the Board of Directors and will carry out duties as specified in the NETAR Policies. 424. UNRELATED BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Identification and Classification

It is the policy of NETAR to properly identify and classify income-producing activities that are unrelated to the Association's tax-exempt purpose using the guidelines described in the Internal Revenue Code and underlying regulations. Such income accounts shall be segregated in separate accounts in the general ledger of NETAR in order to facilitate tracking and accumulation of unrelated trade or business activities.

Allocation of Expenses to Unrelated Activities

In addition to segregating income associated with activities that are unrelated to NETAR's exempt purpose, the Association's general ledger shall also provide accounts for expenses associated with each such unrelated activity. These expenses shall be offset against unrelated business revenue in arriving at unrelated business taxable income. Expenses that shall be offset against gross unrelated business income shall be limited to those expenses directly associated with the production of such income, including reasonable allocation of indirect costs that benefit each activity, in accordance with expense allocation policies described elsewhere in this manual.

Reporting

It is the Policy of NETAR to file IRS Form 990-T to report taxable income from unrelated trade or business activities. Form 990-T is not subject to any public access or disclosure requirements. Accordingly, it is the policy of NETAR not to distribute copies of Form 990-T to anyone other than management of the Association.

NETAR shall also report taxable income from unrelated trade or business activities that are subject to state or local income or franchise taxes on the appropriate return.

425. GOVERNMENT TAX RETURNS

It is the policy of NETAR to utilize its outside CPA firm to prepare all federal and state Income tax returns.

Filing of Returns:

It is the policy of NETAR to comply with all known filing requirements. The Accountant shall be responsible for identifying all filing requirements and assuring that NETAR, and any subsidiaries, are in compliance with all such requirements. It is also the policy of NETAR to file complete and accurate returns with all authorities. NETAR shall make all efforts to avoid filing misleading, inaccurate or incomplete returns.

The CPA, which is approved by the Board of Directors, is also responsible for filing the annual corporate tax returns.

Filings made by NETAR and/or its subsidiaries include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 990 - Annual information return of tax-exempt Associations, filed with IRS. Form 990 for NETAR is due on the fifteenth day of the fifth month following year-end. All annual tax and information returns of NETAR (Form 990, Form 990-T) are filed on the accrual basis of reporting. It is the policy of NETAR to utilize its outside CPA firm to prepare all Federal and State Income Tax returns. After receipt from the Association's CPA firm, IRS Form 990 will be reviewed by the Chief Executive Officer, and the Secretary/Treasurer or President prior to submitting to the Internal Revenue Service.

Public Access to Information Returns:

Under regulations that became effective in 1999, NETAR is subject to federal requirements to make the following forms available to the general public:

1. The three most recent annual federal form 990 information returns.
2. NETAR's original application for recognition of its tax-exempt status, filed with IRS, and all accompanying schedules and attachments.

It is the policy of NETAR to adhere to the following guidelines in order to comply with the preceding public disclosure requirements:

SECTION 5: GENERAL POLICIES

501. CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Officers, Directors, all volunteers, staff and contract consultants shall review and sign a “Confidentiality” policy, to be maintained on file, not less than annually in conjunction with the start of the Association’s fiscal year.

Members of the Board of Directors and staff employees of NETAR carry certain duties and responsibilities for the benefit of the organization. This Confidentiality Policy outlines some of those duties and responsibilities in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and Policy Manual of NETAR (the “Governing Documents”).

Board Members and staff employees will have access to Confidential Information that if furnished or made accessible to any non-board member or used in any unauthorized manner could be damaging to NETAR and its members and could result in NETAR being involved as a party litigant in expensive and protracted litigation resulting in significant monetary damages assessed against NETAR. Information provided to the Board and staff employees which shall be considered confidential (“Confidential Information”) shall include personnel, financial, contractual and membership matters and matters of a legal nature. This information shall be confidential and shall be used only for the purpose of decision making and in the governance of NETAR. Confidential Information shall be held in the strictest of confidence and no member of the Board of Directors shall, without the prior written consent of the President or CEO NETAR: (i) divulge, furnish or make accessible to any person, including any member of NETAR, or use in any manner any of the Confidential Information except as necessary for the resolution of governance issues and the decision making process of NETAR’s Board of Directors; (ii) take any action which might reasonably or foreseeably be expected to compromise the confidentiality of the Confidential Information; or (iii) fail to follow the reasonable suggestions made by the officers and directors of NETAR, from time to time, regarding the confidentiality and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information.

Violations of the Confidentiality Policy may result in disciplinary action. Disciplinary action may include removal of a member from the Board of Directors and as an officer of NETAR and termination of employment of a staff employee.

502. CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Officers, Directors, all volunteers, staff and contract consultants shall review and sign a “Conflict of Interest” policy, to be maintained on file, not less than annually in conjunction with the start of the Association’s fiscal year.

Members of the Board of Directors and staff employees of NETAR perform certain duties and responsibilities for the benefit of the organization. In performing these duties and responsibilities, the Board has adopted the following policies and procedures with respect to potential or actual conflicts of interest involving directors:

POLICY:

Directors owe certain fiduciary duties to NETAR, including the duties of loyalty, diligence and confidentiality, which require that directors act in good faith on behalf of NETAR in exercising the powers conferred to them by NETAR in NETAR and its member's best interests and not for the interest of directors or third parties.

DISCLOSURE:

A director shall promptly disclose to the Board any personal or outside interests, relationships or responsibilities (financial, professional or otherwise) held by the director with respect to any potential or actual transaction, agreement or other activity being considered by the Board which may result in a potential or actual conflict of interest, even if such matter has otherwise been disclosed to NETAR or the Board.

BOARD ACTION:

For any potential or actual conflict, the Board, with the abstention of the interested director, shall decide whether such director may participate in any reporting, discussion or vote on the issue which created the potential or actual conflict. The General Counsel of the Board shall direct the CEO to withhold from such director any information on the conflict issue from materials.

RECUSAL:

Any director with an interest, relationship or responsibility which conflicts with the interest of the NETAR or its members, shall recuse himself or herself from any reporting, discussion or vote on the issue that created the conflict and, if necessary, from the Board meeting, or applicable part thereof.

RESIGNATION:

In circumstances where a director has a significant, ongoing and irreconcilable conflict, and where personal or outside interests, relationships or responsibilities significantly impedes the director's ability to carry out his or her fiduciary responsibility to NETAR, resignation from the Board or termination of the conflicting interest may be appropriate and/or required.

503. ANTI-TRUST COMPLIANCE

Officers, Directors, and all volunteers, staff and contract consultants shall review and sign a "Anti-Trust Compliance" policy, to be maintained on file, not less than annually in conjunction with the start of the Association's fiscal year.

The Board of Directors of NETAR adopted the following policies and procedures regarding potential antitrust violations and strongly recommends that each member of NETAR agree to abide by these policies and procedures.

In antitrust cases, whether criminal prosecutions or civil treble damage suits, proof against the defendant is most likely to come from the defendant or his associates. Thus, an antitrust compliance program must not only avoid actual violations of antitrust laws, but also avoid creating or permitting the creation of files, records, documents, statements or conversations which might create an appearance of a violation. It is impossible, of course, to formulate a set of guidelines to cover all situations at all times, but insofar as the principles of antitrust compliance can be stated in specific rules, members are well advised to abide by the following rules:

Do not discuss business matters with competitors outside of your real estate firm.

At any time, in any place, or under any circumstances, do not have any personal, telephone or e-mail conversations with competitors concerning commissions, fees, charges or any other business practices of your real estate business or those of your firm with which you are associated. At associations or board meetings, confine discussions to topics of association or board business directly involved in the purpose of the organization and the meeting.

Written communication must be clear and explicit.

When you discuss a real estate transaction or the superiority of your business practices over your business competitors, talk only to your broker or associates in the firm with which you are associated. Regardless of how carefully you may phrase your letter or memorandum, things look much different in writing than they sound when spoken between knowledgeable people. Of course, financial and economic data sometimes must be written, but in many instances, any information relevant to business or legal relations can be communicated by talking and talking only to those who have a legitimate justification for receiving the information you are transmitting. More than one antitrust defendant has had his letter, correspondence, memoranda and written notes admitted in evidence against him for purposes for which the writer never intended.

Do not talk unless you know who you're talking to and what you're talking about.

In any business, complete candor among trusted business associates is necessary. It is not necessary, however, to tell everyone your business. Inform only those who need to know such matters as how and in what manner commission or fee contracts were negotiated, how much business you're doing, what your business prospects are, how many and which properties you have sold, and anything else which might be of interest to someone investigating your business for a reason you know nothing about.

If you receive a telephone call from anyone who refuses to identify himself or herself or who begins what amounts to a probing cross-examination about your business practices, terminate the conversation as quickly and courteously as possible. With ever-improved recording devices, it is well to make it a rule in discussing business matters to speak as if you were being recorded.

Do not deceive yourself or let anyone else deceive you into believing that any transgression of the antitrust laws has little risk involved.

The federal government possesses extensive investigatory powers, such as grand juries and civil investigation subpoena, as well as ingenious and dedicated investigators. Also, in private litigation, parties have litigation discovery tools to examine corporate or firm records and documents and to compel testimony. Even though an antitrust violator may not keep records, its competitors or the injured parties may. Unexpected records such as telephone bills, expense accounts, a secretary's notes, engagement calendars or a forgotten written report may be uncovered. Also, your computer's hard drive may be the source of potential information even when you think the information has been erased.

Do not use such terms as "Please Destroy When Read", "For Your Eyes Only", "No Copies" or similar terms and phrases.

Experience has demonstrated that even if no copies are made, the original of such documents eventually end up in somebody's file. Even when marked "personal and confidential", the document is usually retained by the recipient and eventually filed. When an antitrust investigation is under way or documents are produced on a civil investigative demand or in private antitrust litigation, such terms and phrases are red flags for the investigator or opposing counsel.

Do not at any time use any of the words and phrases which NETAR designates as dangerous.

Since such statements are so dangerous, they need to be emphasized here along with some other similar words and phrases:

- "We would like to charge a lower commission, but the board has a rule..."
- "This is the rate that all REALTORS® charge."
- "The MLS will not accept a listing for less than 120 days."
- "Before you list with XYZ Realty, you should know that nobody is going to work on their listings."
- "If John Doe is really professional (or ethical) he would have joined the board."
- "The board requires that all REALTORS® force their salespeople to join."
- "The best way to deal with John Doe is to boycott him.", or "We don't worry about John Doe; we just don't show his listings."
- "If you valued your services as a professional, you wouldn't cut your commissions."
- "If X is going to cut his commissions, we'll just pay him less on splits."
- "No board member will accept a listing for less than 90 days."
- "X is the going rate in this area."
- "We have agreed that any commission below X is unfair."
- "Something has got to be done about that company; nobody can charge such a low commission and make a living."
- "That price-cutter has no business being a member of the board."
- "You will not get a lower commission from a REALTOR®."

If in doubt, consult.

No compliance program or manual can spell out all of the answers to questions which may arise. Situations are bound to arise which create doubt. If you do have doubts about the legal wisdom of any board or business practice, procedure or activity, consult your board executive officer, the broker under whose license you work or legal counsel knowledgeable about antitrust matters.

Without clearance: Don't Do It.

If neither the board executive officer, an executive officer of your firm or legal counsel will give clearance to a proposed business deal or activity with antitrust implications—don't do it.

Under NETAR's policy, antitrust compliance is not a choice, it is a command. The risks are too high for any real estate broker to remain part of an organization which fails to enforce its antitrust compliance program. Lawyers can help with designating compliance guidelines or advising on antitrust compliance matters when they arise, but in the final analysis it will be NETAR and its NETAR Directors, MLS Directors and proxy holders, Professional Standard Committees and Membership Committees who will have to act as the first line of defense against the costs and consequences inherent in failure of antitrust compliance.

However, it remains the responsibility of every member of NETAR to support and implement this Antitrust Compliance Program and demonstrate that REALTORS® are true to that which they profess to believe, the free enterprise system is best devised to secure our economic and personal freedom.

504. FRAUD ACTION PLAN POLICY

Officers, Directors, staff and contract consultants shall review and sign a “Fraud Action Plan” policy, to be maintained on file, not less than annually in conjunction with the start of the Association’s fiscal year.

The following Fraud Action Plan is adopted for the Northeast Tennessee Association of REALTORS:

If fraud is detected by the accounting firm the process shall be to inform NETAR legal counsel and appropriate NETAR officer as directed by accounting firm. Chief Executive Officer will be informed if not suspected in potential fraud.
- Commitment to implementation of reasonable suggestions made by NETAR’s auditor.
- Commitment to implementation of reasonable recommendations made by Treasurer.

505. WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

Officers, Directors, staff and contract consultants shall review and sign a “Whistleblower” policy, to be maintained on file, not less than annually in conjunction with the start of the Association’s fiscal year.

The Northeast Tennessee Association of REALTORS Code of Ethics requires directors, officers, and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Association, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities to comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Reporting Responsibility

It is the responsibility of all directors, officers, and employees to comply with the Code and to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy.

Retaliation

No director, officer or employee who in good faith reports a violation of the Code shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse employment consequence. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns within the Association prior to seeking resolution outside the Association.

Reporting Violations

The Association has an open-door policy and suggests that individuals share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with either the Chief Executive Officer, President, and/or any member of the Board of Directors. Both the Chief Executive Officer and any member of the Board of Directors are required to report suspected violations to the President who has the responsibility to investigate all alleged violations. Should the President and Chief Executive Officer be implicated, it will then become the responsibility of the President-elect to conduct the investigation.

506. FINANCIAL TRANSPARENCY POLICY

Requests for inspection must be in writing and must include name and address of organization requesting information. Copies of items requested will be provided at .30 per page.

508. CHARITABLE GIVING POLICY

NETAR Charitable Giving:

All charitable giving activities planned for by a NETAR Committee or Task Force must be deemed appropriate by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Board of Directors.

Outside Charitable Giving Requests:

All charitable donations requests must be reviewed by the Budget and Finance Committee prior to moving to the Board of Directors for consideration. When charitable organizations contact the Association office, staff should inform the charitable organizations requesting donations that NETAR is a not-for-profit organization and does not regularly make donations. If a charitable organization requests a charitable donation directly from an Officer, Director or volunteer, the request should be forwarded to the CEO, to gather appropriate information for submission to the Budget and Finance Committee for review.

509. BEREAVEMENT POLICY

Staff is authorized to donate up to $75.00 to honor a member, member spouse and children, and or others as deemed necessary by the CEO. Other requests will be directed to the budget committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

510. LETTERHEAD POLICY

Use of NETAR letterhead should be approved in advance by the Chief Executive Officer and/or President. Content should be reviewed and approved in the same manner prior to distribution.

NETAR should be named as the contracting party and NETAR contact information should be on all contracts. NETAR should be provided with all outside vendor contracts.

512. USE OF A PARLIAMENTARIAN

The Parliamentarian is a consultant who advises the President and other officers, committees and members on matters of parliamentary procedure. The Parliamentarian's role during a meeting is purely an advisory and consultative one - since parliamentary law gives to the Chair alone the power to rule on questions of order or to answer parliamentary inquiries.

DUTIES: The President, knowing in advance the business to come before the assembly, should confer with the Parliamentarian before a meeting opens, and during any recesses, to anticipate any problems that may arise and to avoid frequent consultation during the meeting.

During a meeting the work of the Parliamentarian should be limited to giving advice to the Chair and when, requested, to any other member.

It is also the duty of the Parliamentarian, as inconspicuously as possible, to call attention of the Chair to any error in the proceedings that may affect the rights of any member or may otherwise be inappropriate. Only on the most involved matters should the Parliamentarian actually be called upon to speak. The Parliamentarian should be assigned a seat near the Chair in the event consultation is necessary. After the Parliamentarian has expressed an opinion on a point, the Chair has the duty to make the final ruling, and in doing so, has the right to follow the advice of the Parliamentarian, or to disregard it.

513. USE OF LEGAL COUNSEL

The Board of Directors will engage legal counsel for the association and only the Board of Directors may terminate such legal counsel. Requests for advice of such legal counsel shall only be made through the President and/or Chief Executive Officer.

514. USE OF A CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer and the Budget and Finance Committee will appoint a CPA to prepare the annual corporate tax return and audit.

515. DIVERSITY AND FAIR HOUSING POLICY

The Northeast Tennessee Assn. Of REALTORS® actively promotes and supports an industry and work environment which promotes social justice, mutual respect, understanding, civility and non-violence. NETAR is committed to providing equal professional service without regard to the race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, national origin or sexual orientation of any existing or prospective member. Further, NETAR will actively promote a culturally diverse real estate environment in the Northeast Tennessee area, by:

1. Promoting fair housing "best practices" and training for members.
2. Promoting fair housing to the public through building appropriate coalitions and other activities.
3. By working with NAR and TR, in developing and advocating fair housing policy.
4. Encouraging the increase of diversity in the real estate workplace that is reflective of the communities NETAR members work in and serve.
5. Expanding diversity in Association leadership.

516. LEADERSHIP COMMUNICATIONS POLICY

In the course of a volunteer leader's activities with the Northeast Tennessee Association of REALTORS®, members and/or media may contact them with questions, complaints, comments or concerns, related to the Association. In order to most effectively respond, all such inquiries should be handled as follows:

1. Initial inquiry will be referred to the CEO for action/resolution.
2. The President or CEO should be the only one responding. Such response should:
 - a. acknowledge the inquiry, noting that it has been forwarded to NETAR staff for investigation and response.
 - b. thank them and be neutral in tone.
3. Upon investigation and resolution, the CEO will notify all parties who were included in the initial communications of the status of resolution.

517. SMOKING POLICY

It is the policy of the Association that smoking of any kind will not be allowed in the Association offices. Smoking is permitted outside in the covered areas. Smokers are asked to dispose of their cigarette butts in an appropriate manner.

518. SPECIAL EVENTS POLICY

The Northeast Tennessee Association of REALTORS® has created policies in order to facilitate the successful planning and execution of NETAR special events.

Various Committees and Task Forces have general planning oversight for special events within their specified area. Their focus should be on developing themes, identifying speakers (if applicable), soliciting sponsors and actively promoting attendance at the events. The CEO and/or staff is responsible for execution of the event, including budgeting, timing, site and food selection, venue and vendor contracts, and those items noted below.

Budgeting

The staff is responsible for overseeing the event budgeting process. As such, staff is to work closely with the Committee or Task Force planning the event to ensure they are familiar with its budget. All Committee or Task Force members must endeavor to keep expenditures in line with planned revenues throughout the process. For example, ticket pricing should be based upon the combined per person cost of the venue, meals and beverages, staff time (if appropriate), speakers, etc. Add-on items, such as decorations, flowers, give-away gifts, upgrades on the base items above, etc. should be secured after sponsorships for those items have been firmly secured by the Committee or Task Force members.

Insurance

As a part of its general liability insurance policy, NETAR has off-site event coverage for special events. Should revenue protection insurance be desired, it will need to be planned for and purchased separately.

Contracts

Any event requiring contracts related to securing a venue, venue event orders or banquet event orders, must be planned and executed by the staff. All contracts must be reviewed by the CEO before signing. Any contracts related to special events must be in conformance with approved policy (see financial policies).

Reporting

The Committee or Task Force Chair and assigned staff are required to report the status of major action items 90 days, 60 days, 30 days, and 1 week out from the event to the CEO. This report should include notice on any budgetary overruns and/or failure to meet any major benchmarks by the planned completion dates.

Sponsorships and Ticket Sales

The ability to raise sponsorships and sell tickets is highly critical to the success of any special event. The budgeting and expenditure of expenses is driven by these two factors; therefore, it is important to set realistic sponsorship and ticket sales goals, with specific time frames for obtaining them. Alternative strategies should be generated if these goals are not met by the planned time frames.

To ensure the event's success, sponsorships and ticket sales should be collected prior to all events, unless ticket sales are planned to occur at the door. All promotional deadlines for sponsorships and ticket sales should be clearly indicated to facilitate on-time payments.

If the event has not achieved 60% of budgeted ticket sales and sponsorships at least 14 days prior to the event, staff will notify the Committee or Task Force Chair, CEO and Association President. Plans to secure additional sponsorships or a reduction in expenditures should be discussed.

Any attendees who have unpaid balances from past events, must pay those balances prior to committing to new sponsorships and/or purchasing event tickets.

Cancellation of Event

There may be times when the cancellation of a special event needs to be considered (e.g., due to poor ticket sales, natural or other disasters, key speaker cancellations, etc.). In the event that a cancellation is considered, both the “human” factor and the “financial” factor need to be weighed in the ultimate decision to cancel an event.

Should it be deemed necessary to consider the cancellation of any special event, the President and CEO are jointly authorized to make the decision, after consultation with the Chair of the Committee or Task Force which has organized the special event.

If it is determined that the special event is to be cancelled, any and all steps should be taken to mitigate any financial or other loss to NETAR.

519. CEO ABSENCE/SUCCESSION PLAN

As a strategic initiative, this plan is designed to establish a CEO absence/succession plan which provides for seamless, continuing, operation of NETAR and its affiliated entities, with three distinct scenarios:

1. Temporary absence of CEO – up to 1 month
2. Extended temporary absence of CEO - in excess of 1 month
3. Permanent absence of CEO – a new CEO is to be identified and hired

CEO Absence - SCENARIO 1

This scenario assumes a temporary absence of the CEO, up to 1 month, due to industry commitments and/or meetings, illness, vacation, personal leave, etc. This is most typical form of CEO absence.

1. Each of the staff continues to have oversight and direct decision-making within their respective functional areas.
2. When possible, the CEO will meet ahead of time with the appropriate staff to assign additional duties during her temporary absence.
3. The POSITION TITLE will provide administrative support for the NETAR Board of Directors and Executive Committee, as directed by the CEO.

CEO Absence - SCENARIO 2

This scenario assumes an extended, temporary absence of the CEO, in excess of 1 month. A further assumption is that the CEO is unavailable for regular contact and consultation during this time frame. After 60 days, the Board of Directors will be consulted on an acceptable length of this temporary absence, which is dependent upon the specific circumstances of the absence.

1. POSITION would assume the title of “Interim CEO” with the accompanying responsibilities and authority. She/he would use good judgment in delegating duties within the functional area of the CEO to appropriate staff during the CEO’s absence. She/he would report directly to the Board of Directors and be accountable to them.
2. When possible, the CEO will meet ahead of time with the appropriate staff to assign additional duties during her/his extended, temporary absence.

3. Each of the staff continues to have direct oversight and direct decision-making within their respective areas of responsibility.
4. The POSITION TITLE will provide administrative support for the NETAR Board of Directors and Executive Committee, as directed by the CEO.

CEO Succession - SCENARIO 3

This scenario assumes a new CEO needs to be recruited and hired.

1. If the CEO is available for a specified period of time, she/he would continue in her/his current capacity and will assist the Board of Directors with the recruitment and hiring of a new CEO.
2. If the If the CEO is not available, the staff would operate under the direction of the “Interim CEO” as outlined in Scenario 2, until a new CEO is recruited and hired. The Interim CEO would assist the Board of Directors with the administrative aspects of identification and hiring of a new CEO. A temporary adjustment in salary (or a bonus) in accordance with newly assumed duties and market rate and should be determined by the Board of Directors for the “Interim CEO.” Other temporary salary adjustments may be considered by the Board for other staff taking over key portions of the CEO’s regular duties and responsibilities.

Recruitment

It is recommended that NETAR utilize the services of a recruiting consultant who specializes in Association Management Executive recruitment, and/or specific REALTOR® Association Management recruitment.

Recruitment Plan

The purpose of the plan is to keep the search focused on key areas, such as the strategic direction of the Association, position competencies and executive attributes, budget and timeline to ensure the best candidate is hired within NETAR’s resources.

A Search Committee should be established and plays a key role in the recruitment process. The Executive Committee will appoint the Search Committee, which will be comprised of 7 REALTORS® members including: The Chair (often a recent Past President), the 3 Officers, and 3 Directors, selected by the President.

The roles and level of involvement of the committee should be determined at the beginning of the process. The CEO and/or Interim CEO would act as the liaison for the committee. Suggested responsibilities would be to:

1. Receive direction from the Board of Directors on the future direction of the Association and key desired attributes and qualifications of the new CEO;
2. Determine the budget for the search;
3. Develop a recruiting plan and timeline;
4. Select and work with the recruiting consultant;
5. Review the position description and determine position competencies;
6. Determine a competitive compensation package;
7. Develop interview questions and establish interview format;
8. Interview top candidates;
9. Recommend the top candidate to the BOD for approval;
10. Negotiate a compensation package, employment agreement terms and start date;

In addition to assisting the Search Committee with the above, the recruiting consultant would be responsible for:

1. Review the current position description for revision, along with compensation and benefits;
2. Write the advertisement and post on appropriate job boards;
3. Contact peers within the field to identify potential candidates;
4. Source resumes;
5. Conduct initial phone interviews;
6. Do background screening;
7. Conduct reference checks;
8. Prepare candidates for formal interview process;
9. Guide the interview process and aid the Search Committee's discussions;
10. Conduct final debrief with Search Committee.

Internal Candidates

It is not uncommon for an internal candidate(s) to arise. It is critical that both the Board of Directors, the Search Committee and anyone involved in the recruitment and selection process remain neutral. They cannot act on behalf of, or in opposition to, any internal candidate. It must be clearly communicated with the staff candidate that the same criteria and expectations imposed upon external candidates will apply to them, as well.

Transition Realities

For the well-being of the organization, it is critical that the volunteer leadership allow the new CEO sufficient time to analyze the organization's systems, finances, structures and human resources, as well as the culture of the volunteer leadership and relations with TR and NAR. As such, the Executive Committee should work closely with the new CEO over the course of a year's time frame (one full cycle within the Association), to ensure that expectations are clearly established at the time of hire and to hold a formal evaluation at the end of the first six months and one year of service.

Volunteer leadership can expect uncertainties among staff as they interact with the new CEO. This is normal and leadership should expect that there to be some tension initially. It is recommended that volunteer leaders do not interject themselves into day-to-day management decisions, allowing the new CEO to make personnel decisions that he/she believe best serve the organization. Again, leadership should be neutral in this capacity.

520. OPERATIONS CONTINUITY PLAN

PURPOSE: The purpose of this plan is to prepare our Association Office and Employees for a potential infectious disease outbreak, epidemic or pandemic.

The objective of this plan is: (a) reducing transmission among NETAR staff and members they are exposed to, (b) protecting people who are at a higher risk for adverse health complications, and (c) maintaining necessary business operations.

GUIDANCE FOR THE WORKPLACE

The following guidance may help prevent workplace exposures to illnesses. It also provides planning considerations if there are more widespread, community outbreaks, or pandemics such as the COVID-19. Some processes may change depending on the remote work situation. It is recommended that to the extent possible, mitigation strategies from the CDC be followed.

RECOMMENDED PREVENTION STRATEGIES TO USE IN THE WORKPLACE

- Staff members who have symptoms of acute respiratory illness, signs of a fever and any other symptoms of infectious illness should not come to work. If symptoms occur at work, staff member should be sent home.
- Staff should always practice proper hygiene. Serious respiratory illnesses like influenza, respiratory syncytial virus (RSV), whooping cough, and severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) are spread by: Coughing or sneezing and unclean hands.
- All staff members should wash their hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. If soap and water are unavailable, use the provided alcohol-based hand sanitizer to clean hands. Regular handwashing, particularly before and after certain activities, is one of the best ways to remove germs, avoid getting sick, and prevent the spread of germs to others.
- Routinely clean all frequently touched surfaces in the workplace, such as workstations, phones, desktops, computers, keyboards & mouse, and doorknobs. Use the cleaning agents that are recommended in these areas and follow the directions on the label.
- Office should have on hand and available at all times: Disinfecting Wipes, Disinfecting Spray, Tissues, Hand Sanitizer, Hand Soap, Paper Towels, Rubber Gloves and Normal Cleaning Supplies
- Staff members who are well but who have a sick family member at home with COVID-19 or any transmittable disease should not come to work.
- In the event of a widespread communicable disease, staff who directly deal with members should avoid taking items directly from them unless protective gloves are worn.
- Non-employees & members should call before coming into the office to determine if the business can be conducted remotely or if an in-office appointment is necessary.
- If an employee of NETAR or a visitor to the office communicates their diagnosis or direct exposure to a person with COVID-19, Influenza or any infectious illness, it will likely be necessary to vacate the office space in order to have a sufficient cleaning prior to occupancy. Chief Executive Officer will make this determination.
- If an infection event occurs which necessitates professional remediation, Chief Executive Officer will determine the date available to reopen the office and will communicate such to staff and members.

FURTHER ACTION STEPS IF NECESSARY

Step 1: Cancelling all in person Association meetings and postponing events until situation improves.

Factors that would initiate this step:

1. Governmental agencies request to limit exposure and gatherings
2. State of Emergency declared

Actions:

- A. Approval from Chief Executive Officer for cancellations/rescheduling
- B. Send email to membership and/or appropriate groups about cancellations
- C. Post information on Facebook
- D. Conduct essential meetings through Zoom
- E. Follow guidelines from proper authorities such as local, state or national governments and for the Centers for Disease Control (CDC)

Step 2: Re-evaluate the situation and response weekly

Step 3: If situation continues to deteriorate, further steps will need to be enacted. Deteriorate meaning recommendations from the state or federal government that, in the best interest of our members and employees, guidelines are stricter, and recommendations are made that we need to follow to protect members and staff from exposure and assist in the containment of the spread of COVID-19 or other serious infectious disease.

Step 4: To preserve the ability for staff to continue to operate the association with limited exposure to we or others, the office will operate in lock down mode.

Factors that would initiate lockdown (Not all need to be present to initiate this step):

1. Governmental agencies or the CDC recommendations
2. Confirmed Case(s) of highly infectious disease reported in Northeast Tennessee

Actions:

- A. Staff will continue to come to work at the office
- B. Send email to all membership about current office procedures
- C. Post on Facebook to explain the current office procedures
- D. Sign on the door explaining the office procedures that are in place and that need to be followed
- E. Message on office voice mail explaining what the office procedures will be at this time
- F. Entrance into the building will be limited to staff and President ONLY
- G. Staff will continue to provide members service through continuing to answer phone calls and emails per usual.

Step 5: This is the highest level of precautions (Isolation) and it will be working from home for those that can do so and in isolation for those in the office Factors that would initiate working from home:

1. Governmental agencies or the CDC make the recommendation for people to work from home
2. The number of cases in our area grows
3. Staff member has symptoms, is sick or has relative they care for that is sick or symptomatic

Actions:

- A. Non-affected staff person may continue to work at office
- B. If office is not staffed, phone calls will be forwarded to staff as outlined in the Remote Work technology section
- C. An email will be sent out to the membership to inform them of the current operational status of the association
- D. A sign will be placed on the door explaining the current office procedures that need to be followed
- E. Staff will continue to provide members service through “no contact” by continuing to answer phone calls and emails per normal operating procedures. We will then process the request. When member is nearing the association office, they can call, and we can place the product outside the door, thus initiating the no contact level of service.

Step 6: This is when it is dictated to us to shut down and everyone is in a mandatory “Shelter in Place” situation.

Factors that would initiate staff working from home:

1. Governmental agencies or the CDC require everyone to “Shelter in Place.”
2. Staff members are sick, have been exposed to virus or have family members who are sick or have been exposed

Actions:

- A. All staff will work from home via Remote Work/Telecommuting as outlined below

REMOTE WORK/TELECOMMUTING

NETAR defines Remote Work as working from any location other than an established NETAR office. Eligibility for Remote Work is determined by the Chief Executive Officer. If it becomes necessary for employees to work remotely, the following guidelines apply:

REMOTE WORK TECHNOLOGY

NETAR has established capability to work remotely as indicated below. Office phone calls can be forwarded when staff is working remotely. Calls will be forwarded during normal business hours to staff cells on a scheduled established rotation. If hours for accepting calls deviate from normal business hours, notification will be sent to all members.

To Access Office Computers Remotely

Staff has secure remote access to their office computer. (set up and managed by Pointech) Access has been established through each staff member's home computer.

PAY FOR REMOTE WORK

To be eligible for work pay (non-sick leave pay)

Employees are expected to complete their standard number of hours and tasks while working remotely. Employees are not expected to work longer hours than they would normally but are expected to complete a full day unless modified hours are previously approved by the Chief Executive Officer. Any additional work hours for part-time employees must have prior approval from Chief Executive Officer. Unless ill or using sick leave, employees are expected to maintain the same level of productivity and availability while working remote as they would if present in the office.

Expenses Due to the limited nature of Remote Work at NETAR, there is normally no reimbursement for any expenses such as internet, meals or equipment that are used in fulfillment of the Employee's duties while working remotely. Any exceptions must be approved by Chief Executive Officer.

Miscellaneous

The security of all NETAR property, whether equipment, data or documents, is the sole responsibility of the staff member when they are working remotely or transporting same. Staff is expected to make every reasonable effort to ensure the security of all NETAR property while in their possession. The option to work remotely can be terminated/denied/suspended at any time by the Chief Executive Officer or Association Board of Directors if any NETAR policies are deemed violated or a detrimental effect on office production is noted.

For purposes of communicating office closing, return to work times, etc. to members, message will be sent via email. Additionally, it will be posted the Association's Facebook page.

603. CONFLICT OF INTEREST ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Members of the Board of Directors and staff employees of NETAR perform certain duties and responsibilities for the benefit of the organization. In performing these duties and responsibilities, the Board has adopted the following policies and procedures with respect to potential or actual conflicts of interest involving directors:

POLICY

Directors owe certain fiduciary duties to NETAR, including the duties of loyalty, diligence and confidentiality, which require that directors act in good faith on behalf of NETAR in exercising the powers conferred to them by NETAR in NETAR and its member's best interests and not for the interest of directors or third parties.

DISCLOSURE

A director shall promptly disclose to the Board any personal or outside interests, relationships or responsibilities (financial, professional or otherwise) held by the director with respect to any potential or actual transaction, agreement or other activity being considered by the Board which may result in a potential or actual conflict of interest, even if such matter has otherwise been disclosed to NETAR or the Board.

BOARD ACTION

For any potential or actual conflict, the Board, with the abstention of the interested director, shall decide whether such director may participate in any reporting, discussion or vote on the issue which created the potential or actual conflict. The General Counsel of the Board shall direct the Secretary to withhold from such director any information on the conflict issue from materials distributed to Board members and take all such other necessary action necessary to effectuate this policy.

RECUSAL

Any director with an interest, relationship or responsibility which conflicts with the interest of the NETAR or its members, shall recuse himself or herself from any reporting, discussion or vote on the issue that created the conflict and, if necessary, from the Board meeting, or applicable part thereof.

RESIGNATION

In circumstances where a director has a significant, ongoing and irreconcilable conflict, and where personal or outside interests, relationships or responsibilities significantly impedes the director's ability to carry out his or her fiduciary responsibility to NETAR, resignation from the Board or termination of the conflicting interest may be appropriate and/or required.

604. ANTI-TRUST ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In antitrust cases, whether criminal prosecutions or civil treble damage suits, proof against the defendant is most likely to come from the defendant or his associates. Thus, an antitrust compliance program must not only avoid actual violations of antitrust laws, but also avoid creating or permitting the creation of files, records, documents, statements or conversations which might create an appearance of a violation. It is impossible, of course, to formulate a set of guidelines to cover all situations at all times, but insofar as the principles of antitrust compliance can be stated in specific rules, members are well advised to abide by the following rules:

Do not discuss business matters with competitors outside of your real estate firm.

At any time, in any place, or under any circumstances, do not have any personal, telephone or e-mail conversations with competitors concerning commissions, fees, charges or any other business practices of your real estate business or those of your firm with which you are associated. At associations or board meetings, confine discussions to topics of association or board business directly involved in the purpose of the organization and the meeting.

Written communication must be clear and explicit.

When you discuss a real estate transaction or the superiority of your business practices over your business competitors, talk only to your broker or associates in the firm with which you are associated. Regardless of how carefully you may phrase your letter or memorandum, things look much different in writing than they sound when spoken between knowledgeable people. Of course, financial and economic data sometimes must be written, but in many instances, any information relevant to business or legal relations can be communicated by talking and talking only to those who have a legitimate justification for receiving the information you are transmitting. More than one antitrust defendant has had his letter, correspondence, memoranda and written notes admitted in evidence against him for purposes for which the writer never intended.

Do not talk unless you know who you're talking to and what you're talking about.

In any business, complete candor among trusted business associates is necessary. It is not necessary, however, to tell everyone your business. Inform only those who need to know such matters as how and in what manner commission or fee contracts were negotiated, how much business you're doing, what your business prospects are, how many and which properties you have sold, and anything else which might be of interest to someone investigating your business for a reason you know nothing about. If you receive a telephone call from anyone who refuses to identify himself or herself or who begins what amounts to a probing cross-examination about your business practices, terminate the conversation as quickly and courteously as possible. With ever-improved recording devices, it is well to make it a rule in discussing business matters to speak as if you were being recorded.

Do not deceive yourself or let anyone else deceive you into believing that any transgression of the antitrust laws has little risk involved.

The federal government possesses extensive investigatory powers, such as grand juries and civil investigation subpoena, as well as ingenious and dedicated investigators. Also, in private litigation, parties have litigation discovery tools to examine corporate or firm records and documents and to compel testimony. Even though an antitrust violator may not keep records, its competitors or the injured parties may. Unexpected records such as telephone bills, expense accounts, a secretary's notes, engagement calendars or a forgotten written report may be uncovered. Also, your computer's hard drive may be the source of potential information even when you think the information has been erased.

Do not use such terms as "Please Destroy When Read", "For Your Eyes Only", "No Copies" or similar terms and phrases.

Experience has demonstrated that even if no copies are made, the original of such documents eventually end up in somebody's file. Even when marked "personal and confidential", the document is usually retained by the recipient and eventually filed. When an antitrust investigation is under way or documents are produced on a civil investigative demand or in private antitrust litigation, such terms and phrases are red flags for the investigator or opposing counsel.

Do not at any time use any of the words and phrases which NETAR designates as dangerous.

Since such statements are so dangerous, they need to be emphasized here along with some other similar words and phrases:

- "We would like to charge a lower commission, but the board has a rule..."
- "This is the rate that all REALTORS® charge."
- "The MLS will not accept a listing for less than 120 days."
- "Before you list with XYZ Realty, you should know that nobody is going to work on their listings."
- "If John Doe is really professional (or ethical) he would have joined the board."
- "The board requires that all REALTORS® force their salespeople to join."
- "The best way to deal with John Doe is to boycott him.", or "We don't worry about John Doe; we just don't show his listings."
- "If you valued your services as a professional, you wouldn't cut your commissions."
- "If X is going to cut his commissions, we'll just pay him less on splits."
- "No board member will accept a listing for less than 90 days."
- "X is the going rate in this area."
- "We have agreed that any commission below X is unfair."
- "Something has got to be done about that company; nobody can charge such a low commission and make a living."
- "That price-cutter has no business being a member of the board."
- "You will not get a lower commission from a REALTOR®."

If in doubt, consult.

No compliance program or manual can spell out all of the answers to questions which may arise. Situations are bound to arise which create doubt. If you do have doubts about the legal wisdom of any board or business practice, procedure or activity, consult your board executive officer, the broker under whose license you work or legal counsel knowledgeable about antitrust matters.

Without clearance: Don't Do It.

If neither the board executive officer, an executive officer of your firm or legal counsel will give clearance to a proposed business deal or activity with antitrust implications—don't do it.

Under NETAR's policy, antitrust compliance is not a choice, it is a command. The risks are too high for any real estate broker to remain part of an organization which fails to enforce its antitrust compliance program. Lawyers can help with designating compliance guidelines or advising on antitrust compliance matters when they arise, but in the final analysis it will be NETAR and its NETAR Directors, MLS Directors and proxy holders, Professional Standard Committees and Membership Committees who will have to act as the first line of defense against the costs and consequences inherent in failure of antitrust compliance.

However, it remains the responsibility of every member of NETAR to support and implement this Antitrust Compliance Program and demonstrate that REALTORS® are true to that which they profess to believe, the free enterprise system is the best ever devised to secure our economic and personal freedom.

606. WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

The Northeast Tennessee Association of REALTORS Code of Ethics requires directors, officers, and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Association, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities to comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Reporting Responsibility

It is the responsibility of all directors, officers, and employees to comply with the Code and to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy.

Retaliation

No director, officer or employee who in good faith reports a violation of the Code shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse employment consequence. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns within the Association prior to seeking resolution outside the Association.

Reporting Violations

The Association has an open-door policy and suggests that individuals share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with either the Chief Executive Officer, President, and/or any member of the Board of Directors. Both the Chief Executive Officer and any member of the Board of Directors are required to report suspected violations to the President who has the responsibility to investigate all alleged violations. Should the President and Chief Executive Officer be implicated, it will then become the responsibility of the President-elect to conduct the investigation.
